MARY PICKFORD CLOSES AT THE POPULAR TONIGHT

"America's Little Sweetheart" Proves Magnet That Attracts Crowds

Mary Pickford continues to pack them in at the Popular theater, despite the fact that the stores are open to allow the procrastinator to attend to Christmas shopping at the eleventh hour. Last night the cozy little Hotel street theater was virtually packed to the doors by admirers of "America's Little Sweetheart," who desired to see her in one of her latest successes, "The Eagle's Mate."

BUSHMAN IS IN CONGENIAL ROLE IN 'SHADOWS'

Francis X. Bushman is placed in a congenial role in the big two-part melodrama "Shadows," in which the heroine is freed from an unhappy marriage.

Combining superior talent with excellent photography, "Shadows" will be the star attraction offered at the Empire theater this afternoon and evening. The ability of a well-balanced cast are shown to excellent advantage in the production which has been recently released from a mainland studio. The picture is very much to the moment and it deals with a series of stirring situations terminating with a number of telling climaxes. There is a happy mixture of pathos and humor in the one reel offering, "For His Loved One," which in photography form is interesting and woven about a plot that supplied material for a popular novel.

T. H. Ince and W. T. Clifford have succeeded in producing an uproarious farce comedy "In the Soup." Many old-time favorites with patrons of the movies appear in a flashing film, filled with fun.

One of the famous Louise Lester comedies will be a feature of the program, which, under the title of "Calamity Jane's Sacrifice," gives opportunity for a particular star to assume a character role which brings the production far above the ordinary. Ye Liberty theater will be dark today, the house having been placed in the hands of the carpenters and decorators. This theater will be opened on Wednesday with a big matinee and evening bill.

BIG NIGHT AT WAIKIKI INN ON CHRISTMAS EVE

Special arrangements have been made for a dinner and dance to be given at the Waikiki Inn on the evening of December 24. Special privileges have been granted, permitting the gaieties to extend past the usual closing hour. There will be special music. Orders for the reservation of tables for the evening should be sent in now, as the management expects a large number of patrons on this occasion.—Adv.
